Context:

This position of Project Coordinator (Humanitarian Hub) is aimed at coordinating and managing the Humanitarian Hubs which have been opened in Nigeria in response to the emergency crisis where United Nations Agencies, IOM and other humanitarian actors have lost adequate working and living accommodations.

Under the overall supervision of the Chief of Mission and Senior Resources Management Officer, and the direct supervision of the Head of Sub Office (HoSO), and the thematic supervision of the Sub-office Head, Procurement & Logistics, the successful candidate will be responsible for the management of the overall Humanitarian Hub and all Sub-Hubs in the Region of Northeast Nigeria.

Core Functions / Responsibilities:

1. Coordinate with humanitarian partners, international and national non-governmental organizations, and United Nations Agencies, regarding the development and needs within the Humanitarian Hubs in the region and draft proposals to meet these needs and developments.
2. Participate in operational meetings to discuss challenges, needs and routine operational matters. Communicate key discussions and recommendations to the HoSO and the Chief of Mission.
3. Participate in the preparation of budget/spending plans, including the monitoring of cost recovery, and the provision of the necessary coordination with partners to ensure timely payments of invoices;
4. Contribute in management of Hub resources in an efficient manner; update funding and expenditure spreadsheets, track resource utilization, make recommendations on spending plans.
5. Draft quarterly procurement plans for the Hub.
6. Oversee the work of humanitarian hub contractors' work following the agreed specifications.
7. Prepare and facilitate the implementation of and track Memoranda of Understanding (MoUs) for long-term hub residents and partners institutions.
8. Oversee the Humanitarian Hub's functioning and facilities; coordinating repairs, maintenance and installation of infrastructure; manage the Humanitarian Hub front desk through oversight of booking systems, guests invoicing and the application of procedures and communicating to residents/guests on hub rules and Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs).
9. Coordinate the hiring and supervising of personnel for finance, Hub invoicing, cash collections, guest accommodation, including housekeepers, electricians, plumbers, daily labourer's etc;
10. Oversee the work of facility maintenance staff and other skilled /unskilled daily labourers; provide basic training as required and make recommendations where needed to improved their performance.
11. Facilitate the planning and coordination of essential central services, manage the storage and stocks of consumables, equipment, and tools ensuring consumptions are properly monitored, maintenance records are properly archived, and Hub assets are properly kept and tracked.
12. Submit weekly occupancy reports, cost recovery, weekly Hubs' situation reports and other necessary monthly or quarterly reports. Facilitate the timely submission of reports to all concerned.
13. Liaise closely with IOM SSU and facilitate the implementation of access control and fire/other hazard safety plans inside the hub; oversee the availability of adequate resources at the Hub in case of any such emergency.
14. Receive complaints and ensure that facilities-related complaints are channeled to the HoSO.
15. Draft documentation for facilitating the Chief of Mission chairing the humanitarian hub committee meetings with the United Nations Humanitarian Coordinator (UNHC).
16. Perform such other duties as may be assigned.
