

Product Owner

The key purpose of the Product Owner – Warehouse to Dispatch is to be the custodian of all Logistics system processes within the Africa Zone ERP landscape. The Product Owner will work closely with the Zone Logistics Function to align the W2D and system processes in the relevant ERP system per market across the Africa zone.

The Product Owner is responsible and accountable for maintaining the integrity and stability of the current W2D ERP solutions in Africa , as well as lead the W2D stream within the planned implementation of a new ERP system (SAP S4 HANA) across the Africa Zone in 2022 and 2023

Responsibilities include but not limited to

- Own the end-to-end system process across the Africa ERP landscape – including existing and new ERPs;
- Shape and deliver business and process requirements together with the business function and ERP programme delivery team;
- Ensure the successful implementation of end-to-end processes by considering the needs of the business in line with the Steering Committee success factors;
- Prioritizes tasks, mitigates risks in liaison with project leadership, zone business leadership and global business leadership;
- Has sign-off authority for the project delivery in the process area for the Africa Zone;
- Is the change leader for the process area and identifies and co-ordinates business resources across the Africa Zone;
- Owns the product backlog for the process area - owns and prioritizes user stories and is first contact for clarifications/escalations;
- Is accountable for provision of content for global training material development;
- Monitors completeness and correctness of the progress information, according to requirements and acceptance criteria;
- Responsible for Training needs and other readiness activities;
- Is responsible for the control of the system operations and results obtained (outputs) in terms of compliance with expected needs and quality standards.
- The Product Owner will make sure that all governance, processes and controls are considered and built into each product backlog as well as continue to drive MICS/SOX compliance

Requirements & Skills

- Leadership and technical competencies - including logistics experience
- Technology related Bachelors Degree, Diploma or business related qualification
- Effective communication techniques - including verbal, written, and interpersonal skills
- Leadership, influencing, and team building skills
- Continuous Improvement and Problem solving skills
- Deep understanding of Agile, DevOps, and lean process tools and techniques (certified scrum master and/or product owner preferred)

Product Owner (ERP & VC – Order To Cash) – BeerTech Africa

- Skill in analyzing complex issues to determine root causes and to find innovative solutions
- Demonstration of characteristics such as creativity and motivation
- Ability to engage with and influence senior leaders and stakeholders
- Business oriented mind-set with the ability to set and maintain a departmental budget
- Excellent interpersonal skills and ability to work with all levels of an organization focused on value creation, impediment & waste removal, and overall velocity increase
- Strategic, execution and innovative thinking - demonstrated success delivering complex projects quickly using agile mindset
- Experienced in agile project, program, and portfolio management and execution
- Demonstrated ability to effectively coach teams and lead peers

Key Outputs

- Accountable for the readiness of the business to change supported by the Change Team, Country People Lead and Change Agents;
- Accountable for ensuring that specific activities required to ready the business for the change are executed as per plan within their functional area;
- Drives execution of project and change activities for their functional area to drive business engagement and readiness;
- Coordinate business engagement and readiness activities as per the agreed change management plan.

This role is based in Lagos, Nigeria